

Biennial workplan UNESCO/UNEVOC national centre 2020/2021

The HEA (Halsingland Education Association) is a national centre for the UNESCO/UNEVOC in Sweden.

The activities 2020-2021 will be focused on:

- Our role as an expert knowledge hub for VET providers about international cooperation.
- Our role as an experienced coordinator and partner in transnational VET projects.
- Our role as an expert knowledge hub for VET providers and tools developed by the EU to foster international mobility: EQF, EQAVET, ECVET, Europass.

The HEA will organise a number of workshops during 2020/2021 for VET policymakers, VET providers, VET teachers/trainers also within the coordination of the EU/Erasmus+ funded KA 2 VET projects.

The HEA will, as a member of the www.skillman.eu network, coordinate a regional COVE together with the University of Gävle and the Teknikcollege Hälsingland and others.

The UNESCO/UNEVOC centre is situated at the Centre For Flexible Learning (CFL) in the municipality of Söderhamn and will be open for contacts and visits all weekdays between 08.30-16.30.

Contact:

Mr. Klas Tallvid

Director of the UNESCO/UNEVOC national centre

+46 (70) 337 97 81

Klas.tallvid@hufb.se

www.hufb.se

Halsingland Education Association , Sweden